THE ARMY "A" CLUB

As the fundraising arm of the Army Athletic Association the Army "A" Club is responsible for generating support for the purpose of enriching the cadet-athlete experience at West Point. The financial support from generous donors contributes to the program's long term growth and prosperity.

Members receive benefits that are intended to thank contributors for their generosity, and allow dedicated supporters to stay involved and well informed about the Army Black Knights. "A" Club members receive premium parking at football games, preferred seat locations at various events, invitations to special events, and most importantly the gratification of enhancing the experience of our cadet-athletes.

By supporting the Army "A" Club, donors help the Army Athletic Association meet our financial needs, support our tremendous cadet-athletes, and maintain our standard of excellence.

Please consider making a tax deductible gift to the Army "A" Club today by calling 845-938-2322.

COUNTDOWN TO KICKOFF

CADET REVIEW

Watch as members of the U.S. Corps of Cadets march out of the sallyports of Washington Hall onto the parade grounds for review by the Superintendent, the Brigade Commander and the Official Party.

BLACK KNIGHTS ALLEY

Children's play areas, photograph and autograph sessions, live radio broadcasts, food and beverage specials – it's all part of one of the great traditions in college football. Cheer on the players as they walk to the locker room, enjoy great food and cold beverages, all while next to beautiful Lusk Reservoir.

ARMY FOOTBALL TAILGATE SHOW

Join program co-hosts John Minko and Bob Outer for the Army Football Tailgate Show two hours prior to kickoff. The show runs for 90 minutes and includes interviews, special features and an opportunity for fans to ask questions.

GET TO YOUR SEATS

Don't enjoy the tailgating for too long, though. Pregame festivities including the Rabble Rousers, skydivers and stunts begin 30 minutes prior to kickoff. Make sure you're in your seats to stand and cheer at the first sounds of "On Brave Old Army Team," as your Black Knights take the field.
